MUSEUM'S SUMMER ART CLASSES FOR YOUNG PEOPLE ANNOUNCED

Summer art classes for young people will soon be under way at The Cleveland Museum of Art.

Registration for the Free Saturday Gallery Classes is June 4, beginning at 9:00 a.m. The applicant must register in person and will be enrolled on a first-come, first-serve basis. Classes start June 4 and continue every Saturday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. through August 20. Boys and girls, aged 6 through 16, and interested in drawing objects in the Museum galleries, are eligible.

The following art classes require registration by written application in advance, and, a $5.00 studio fee. (Forms can be obtained by calling the Museum's Education Department --- 421-7340; the applications must be returned by Monday, June 13.):

The Outdoor Sketching and Painting Classes are for boys and girls aged 6 through 16. The classes meet two days a week beginning June 21 and continuing through July 29 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.; the younger groups (6-9 years) are scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays and the older groups (10-16 years) for Wednesdays and Fridays. Classes work in the Museum, sketching the collections, on rainy mornings.

The Special Watercolor Class is geared for advanced students, 11 to 16 years. It meets on Wednesdays and Fridays, 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., beginning June 22 and continuing through July 29. The park area surrounding the Museum will provide the subject matter, except on rainy days when the class will work in the Museum.

The Puppet Theater Classes, conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Sherman of the Sherman Puppet Theater, give children, aged 7 through 14, the opportunity to make puppets from materials normally found around the house. Classes meet two days a week, beginning June 21 and continuing through July 29, either in the morning at 9:30 to 11:30, or in the afternoon at 1:30 to 3:30. Younger groups (7-10 years) are scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays, older groups (11-14 years) for Wednesdays and Fridays.
